Please also note:

- Seat allotment for any course is subject to availability of seat at the time of allotment.
- For each allotment, we shall send email and SMS to candidates for convenience, but a candidate not receiving any message after an allotment should check the allotment lists / her dashboard in the admission website to rule out any problem with message delivery.
- Candidates need to pay admission fee online within the last date to become eligible for provisional admission. Facility to indicate choice of course and making online payment is available in the applicant's dashboard after login.
- Do not make another payment if money has been debited in your account but there has been a connection error.
- The day after payment, college will provisionally admit the applicant into selected course. After this, provisional enrolment certificate will be available in the applicant dashboard. No message will be sent.
- A candidate may withdraw her admission by sending an application to the principal from her registered email id to helpdesk.pdwc@gmail.com.
- This process of online enrolment and withdrawal is applicable only up to commencement of class. After that further allotments may be done and candidates may visit admission counter at college for all services other than payment.
