(Govt. Sponsored)

Affiliated to the University of North Bengal

Notice for Online Admission (Notice: 04/2019 dated 22-06-2019)

University of North Bengal has requested us to re-open application process for UG general courses up to 28/06/2019. We shall receive online applications from 22/06/2019 to 28/06/2019 11:59 PM only for general courses through a special portal for this purpose available at <http://extended-admission.pdwomenscollege.org>. It is to be noted that all our previous applicants have also applied for at least one general course, since that is compulsory in our system. Only fresh applicants having new email address will be allowed to apply in the extended period.

With this we have also withdrawn the already published merit list for general courses. New merit list including applicants from extended period will be published provisionally on 03/07/2019 11:30 a.m. and finally on 05/07/2019 11:30 a.m. This merit list will be available at our main admission portal <http://admission.pdwomenscollege.org> and new applicants will be able to login there only.
